1	Thomas W. McNamara, as Court-appointed receiver ("Receiver"), hereby submits this
2	Third Interim Status Report of receivership activities for the period of April 15, 2023 through
3	July 14, 2023, pursuant to NRS § 86.5419.
4	I.
5	INTRODUCTION
6	This report supplements and incorporates by reference the Receiver's previously filed
7	Financial Report and Accounting filed October 19, 2022, the Interim Status Report filed January
8	19, 2023, and the Second Interim Status Report filed April 14, 2023. <sup>1</sup> This Third Interim Status
9	Report updates the Court on receivership activities since the last status report.
10	During this period, the Receiver continued the investigation, pursuit and, ultimately, the
11	settlement of claims in Canada against Defendant Duane Tough's wife, Karen English and filed
12	a motion seeking approval with this Court; oversaw efforts to repair and market the Miami
13	Condominium held by the receivership; and opposed and attended a hearing on Cooper
14	Levinson's appeal of the denial of their creditor claim.
15	II.
16	SUMMARY OF THE RECEIVER'S ACTIVITIES
17	A. Efforts to Claw Back Receivership Property
18	1. Canadian Action to Recover Zippy Cash Funds
19	During this period, the Receiver continued prosecution of a Canadian action against
20	Tough and his wife, Karen English ("English"), relating to approximately $570,000 of Zippy
21	Cash funds transferred to Tough's and English's accounts at Canadian Imperial Bank of
22	Commerce ("CIBC"). <sup>2</sup>
24	<sup>1</sup> The Receiver also filed a First Interim Fee Application on October 19, 2022 and a Second Interim Fee Application on June 30, 2023 which discuss receivership activities. Additionally,
25	the Receiver filed a Motion for Order Approving Settlement with Non-Party Karen English on
26	June 12, 2023, which provides additional detail on activities.
27	<sup>2</sup> More specifically, Tough transferred $284,327.62 of converted Zippy Cash's funds to English's CIBC account and sent $285.868.29 to his own CIBC accounts. However, following the filing
28	of the Canadian lawsuit, the Receiver was only able freeze approximately $80,000 of the converted funds. As explained more fully in the Receiver's motion to approve the English $1$

1	In the Second Interim Status Report the Receiver reported that he was close to a
2	settlement in principle with English. We can now report that following extensive negotiations,
3	the Receiver reached a settlement with English that requires her to return all but $4,500 of the
4	$80,000 frozen in her CIBC account. English also agreed to surrender certain luxury items and
5	jewelry in her possession, and a Porsche Boxster which Tough purchased in English's name.
6	The Receiver submitted the settlement to this Court for consideration and approval; that approval
7	was granted on July 13, 2013. While English has turned over possession of the Porsche and the
8	Receiver's Canadian counsel has possession of the settlement funds, the transfer of the jewelry
9	and luxury items from Canada to the United States has proved challenging, but is currently
10	projected to occur on very shortly. The Receiver intends to liquidate the vehicle, jewelry, and
11	luxury items.
12	Consistent with his conduct in this case, Tough failed to participate in the Canadian
13	proceedings and has acted in contempt of the Canadian Court's orders. The Receiver is seeking
14	a default judgment in Canada against Tough.
15	2. Liquidation of the Miami Condo reduction, will hopefully result in an acceptable offer, which will be brought to the Court for review and approval.

B. Creditor Claims

U
4	As previously reported, the Receiver reviewed and approved a total of $6,740,655.67 in
5	claims by creditors and denied one claim in its entirety. That creditor, Defendants Tough's and
6	Ruttman's former counsel, Cooper Levenson P.A., filed an appeal of the Receiver's decision
7	which the Court ultimately granted in part and denied in part. See Amended Order dated June
8	30, 2023. The Receiver is currently awaiting Cooper Levenson's additional supportive
9	briefing/argument in support of its claim. The Receiver will review and consider this
10	information before accepting or rejecting the claim, in whole or in part.

12	RECEIVERSHIP ACCOUNTING
13	Attached as Exhibit 1 is a Receipts and Disbursements Summary for the Receivership for
14	the period April 14, 2023 through July 14, 2023. During this time period, receipts were
15	$1,879.32, primarily comprised of funds transferred from a merchant processor ($1,782.00).
16	Disbursements were $16,303.26, the largest component of which related to repairs necessary for
17	the sale of the Miami condo ($11,615.00). In aggregate, the Receivership bank accounts have a
18	current balance of $333,675.00.
